

TEAM NAME: Higher Education

2008-2010 areas of responsibility:

The Higher Education Action Team members view the responsibility of the Team to continue open communication with the administrators of alternative dispute resolution programs in the law schools and, where applicable, the graduate programs in various universities; to reach out to the students of the law schools to make the students aware of the necessity to have the skills to participate in alternative dispute resolution as part of their practice, whether as a participant seeking the service or a provider of the service.

METHODOLOGY:

Proposed Objectives	Progress Report
1: conduct program for students regarding ADR at each of the law schools & graduate school campuses.
2: develop a policy for Council consideration for offering a scholarship to the Section's Annual Meeting & Conference to a student of each law school and graduate program in dispute resolution AND implement the adopted policy
3: maintain contact with the administrators and providers of ADR education at the law schools and graduate schools
4: identify the means to communicate to law and graduate students
