

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SECTION

SECTION MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION – 2009-2010

The ADR Section of the State Bar of Michigan is open to lawyers and other individuals interested in participating. To comply with State Bar of Michigan requirements, lawyer applicants to the ADR Section are called Members and non-lawyer applicants to the ADR Section are called Affiliates. The Section's mission is:

The Alternative Dispute Resolution Section provides members of the State Bar of Michigan and the general public with creative leadership in the dispute resolution field. The Section fosters diversity in the profession, develops and offers educational programs, promotes access to litigation alternatives regardless of income, monitors legislative and judicial activity and provides policy guidance, information and technical assistance on ethical issues, dispute resolution techniques and training design. The Section produces publications which promote wider use and excellence in the provision of alternative problem-solving techniques and dispute resolution services.

Membership in the Section is open to all members of the State Bar of Michigan. Affiliate status is open to any individual with an interest in the field of dispute resolution.

The Section's annual dues of $30.00 entitle you to receive the Section's Newsletter, participate in programming, further the activities of the Section, receive Section listserv announcements, and participate in the Section's discussion listserv.
