Committee Report
December 3, 2005

The In House Counsel Committee co-sponsored with the Michigan Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel and the Detroit Chapter of the Society of Corporate Secretaries and Governance Professionals a “SEC Hot Topics” Program on November 7, 2005 at the Marriott CenterPoint Hotel in the Bloomfield Hills area. This program was financially underwritten by R.R. Donnelley, Foley & Lardner and Glasser LegalWorks.

This was a full day program covering current securities laws topics. There was no cost to the Business Law Section and there was no charge to participants in the seminar. There were approximately 100 participants at the seminar.
