Suspensions

FOR NONPAYMENT OF DUES

The list of active attorneys who are suspended for nonpayment of their State Bar of Michigan 2016–2017 dues is published on the State Bar's website at <http://www.michbar.org/generalinfo/pdfs/suspension.pdf>. This list is updated weekly. In accordance with Rule 4 of the Supreme Court Rules Concerning the State Bar of Michigan, these attorneys are suspended from active membership effective February 22, 2017, and are ineligible to practice law in this state. For the most current status of each attorney, see our member directory at <http://directory.michbar.org>.

Criminal Law Section

Please join us for our annual meeting and program at the Cobo Center in Detroit on Friday, September 29. The meeting will run from 9 a.m. to 10 a.m., when officers will be installed in their new positions and five members will be elected to the council. From 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., the program will address implicit bias and use-of-force issues in law enforcement. Register online at <http://e.michbar.org> for this free and topical program.

Environmental Law Section

The section has been busy hosting several webinars, with our most recent from the Hazardous Substances and Brownfields Committee on Conceptual Site Models. All webinar materials can be found at <http://connect.michbar.org/envlaw/home>. Our section's annual meeting will take place September 28 in Detroit. The Program Committee welcomes input from all section members. For anyone interested, contact Todd C. Schebor at tschebor@dykema.com or Margrethe K. Kearney at MKearney@elpc.org.

Health Care Law Section

The Health Care Law Section held its annual Detroit Tigers event on June 15. Section members enjoyed happy hour and dinner before the game and were treated to a 5–3 Tigers' victory. The section also hosted a webinar titled "Midlevel Provider Scope of Practice Updates." The section will hold its annual meeting on September 12 at the Detroit Athletic Club. Visit <http://connect.michbar.org/healthcare/home> for registration details.

Information Technology Law Section

Save the date! On Thursday, September 7, plan to attend the 10th Annual Information Technology Law Seminar at The Inn at St. John's in Plymouth. The seminar will include an all-day educational event of informative topics, the IT Law Section's annual meeting, lunch, and a complimentary cocktail reception. When available, additional information will be provided on the section's calendar at <http://connect.michbar.org/itlaw/home>. See you there.

Insurance and Indemnity Law Section

The section's annual meeting and program will be held September 28 at the Cobo Center. The business meeting is 10:00 a.m.–10:30 a.m. and the program runs 10:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m. Ethics expert Janis Meyer of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP will speak on two subjects: (1) cybersecurity and a lawyer's ethical obligation to protect clients' information in the computer age and (2) common lawyer missteps, such as making mistakes with managing client funds, representing "bad" clients, and "dabbling."

International Law Section

Save the date! The section's annual council meeting and program will be held September 28, 1–4 p.m., at the Cobo Center in conjunction with the SBM NEXT Conference. The program, entitled "The Face of Immigration Under a New Administration: Policy and Practice," will feature panel presentations on immigration policy, business immigration, criminal aliens and inadmissibility, family immigration, and asylum/refugee issues. Topics will be of interest to a variety of practitioners.

Marijuana Law Section

The Marijuana Law Section's annual conference will be held September 7–9 at the MGM Grand Detroit. The conference will focus on the Medical Marijuana Facilities Licensing Act and beyond. Presentations include LARA's readiness for the December 15 rollout, adopted municipal ordinances, income taxes, banking, and other topics. This is a great opportunity to increase your knowledge of the new act and get the latest information on legalized marijuana developments beyond the MMFLA. Register at <http://e.michbar.org>.

Master Lawyers Section

The section's annual meeting and educational program will be held September 29. The 10 a.m. program will feature Peter Lichtenberg, PhD, ABPP, who will speak on the impact of cognitive deficiencies on financial decision-making and the signs to be aware of and tools to use when working with clients or loved ones. He will cover issues related to dementia and Alzheimer's disease. Stay tuned for the fall MLS educational program. Details will be in the September Bar Journal.

Paralegal/Legal Assistant Section

The 2017 Paralegal/Legal Assistant Section's annual business meeting and program will be held Friday, September 29 at the Cobo Center in conjunction with the SBM NEXT Conference. The business meeting will begin at 9 a.m. followed by the program at 10 a.m. Speakers Ven Johnson and Robert Gittleman will present "The Hidden Treasures to a Successful Personal Injury Practice." Lunch is served at noon and is included at no cost for program attendees.
