

ADR Section

The ADR annual conference, annual meeting, and section awards were held virtually on October 16–17, as we welcomed Section Chair Betty Rankin Widgeon and incoming council members Hon. Christopher Yates, Lisa Timmons, Richard Kerbawy, Zeina Baydoun, Nakisha Chaney, Christine Gilman, Lisa Okasinski, and Larry Saylor. The latest issue of The Michigan Dispute Resolution Journal, upcoming events, and event materials and recordings can be found at connect.michbar.org/adr.

Appellate Practice Section

On September 24, the section held its annual meeting and program—usually the section's biggest in-person event—remotely for the first time. The all-day event, which attracted more than 200 registered attendees, involved a detailed training on the Ebrief pilot program and an afternoon panel with Supreme Court justices, Court of Appeals judges, and the chief clerks. The program was a success thanks to cooperation from the courts and the work of council members coordinating the event. The section website has links to Ebrief templates that comply with the pilot program and videos of the training and panel sessions.

Elder Law and Disability Rights Section

ELDERS announced its new executive committee members at its October 8 annual meeting: Chair Christine Caswell; Chair-Elect Robert Mannor; Secretary Angela Hentkowski; and Treasurer Maria Messina Wiersma. New council members are Antonia Harbin-Lamb and Nadia Vann. The council would like to thank section members who have worked hard on remote notarization and witnessing issues during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Environmental Law Section

The Hazardous Substance and Brownfield Committee hosted a webinar focusing on notable changes in 2020 to Michigan's environmental regulations and what we can anticipate for 2021 on Wednesday, Dec. 9. The annual Fall Joint Environmental Conference was held in November. The latest issue of the Michigan Environmental Law Journal and event information are available at connect.michbar.org/envlaw.
