

How to Avoid Poor Decisions and Bad Outcomes

November 9, 2015

Program Facts and Feedback

- 27 non-State Bar of Michigan related sponsors helped to broaden the audience and potential outreach.
- 101 total attendees.

We surveyed those who attended and their feedback was:

- Overall 91 percent of respondents thought the training was excellent or very good.
- 100 percent of respondents found the presenters at the program good to excellent
- Over 86 percent found the information was very useful.
- 94 percent of respondents thought that the location was good.
- 57 percent of people who took the feedback survey provided their contact information for similar future training opportunities.
- 97 percent would attend a similar training.

Comments on the day included:

- “I really enjoyed the program and was glad to see the number (and diversity) of the participants.”
- “Very engaging and dynamic.”
- “This was a wonderful presentation that should be replicated to even wider audiences. There are so many applications for the materials and suggestions, if properly ingested.”
- “This was one of the best presentations that I’ve attended in a long while. A Monday morning well spent!”
- “It was one of the best presentations that I’ve attended in a long time.”
- “Very powerful information.”