Explanation of the position, including any recommended amendments: Proposal #1: MCR 7.305(C)(2)(b) and MCR 7.305(C)(5).

The Committee notes that both proposed rules refer to a motion for rehearing in the Court of Appeals. There does not appear to be such procedure in the 7.200's, therefore, the Committee suggests deleting the reference to a motion for rehearing in its entirety and replacing it with a motion for reconsideration. Alternatively, the Committee proposes that MCR7.305(C)(5)(b) be revised to read "the Court of Appeals order denying a timely filed motion for rehearing or reconsideration of a decision remanding the case," which will bring the rule into conformity with MCR 7.305(C)(2)(b).

One committee member voted to support the above amendment with an amendment to delete the reference to rehearing completely.

Proposal #2: MCR 7.305(C)(3).

The committee recommends that this section be rewritten as follows: "In an appeal from an order of discipline or dismissal entered by the Attorney Discipline Board, the application must be filed within the time provided in MCR 9.122(A)(1)."

This change is suggested because MCR 9.122(A)(1) presently sets forth the time period for filing the application for leave to the Supreme Court. The proposed rule does not fully track MCR 9.122(A)(1) and could result in unintended conflicts between the rules.

If the proposed amendments to the Rules governing procedure in the Supreme Court are adopted, the Committee recommends that MCR 9.122(A)(2) be amended as well, as it currently references a Court Rule that will not be applicable if the rules are renumbered as proposed.

Proposal #3: MCR 7.316(A)(6)

The Committee is concerned that giving the Court the authority to draw inferences of fact could conflict with well-established precedent that prohibits fact-finding by inference when ruling upon certain matters, such as motions for summary disposition. Although the current version of MCR 7.316(A)(6) and MCR 7.216(A)(6) presently provide the that the Court of Appeals and Supreme Court may draw inferences of fact, the Committee recommends that these sections be modified to clarify that the court may only draw inferences of fact when appropriate under controlling law.

Proposal #4: MCR 7.318.

The Committee has concerns regarding the second sentence, "the Court may deny the stipulation if it concludes that the matter should be decided notwithstanding the stipulation." If parties resolve a pending dispute, then there is no longer a case or controversy that is ripe for adjudication. Requiring parties that no longer wish to maintain an action to continue with the case and be subject to a potentially adverse rulings, interferes with the parties' Constitutional right to contract, subjects the parties to additional costs associated with litigation, and could discourage settlement. Although similar language is present in the current version of MCR 7.310, insofar as the rules are presently under review, the Committee suggests that the consideration be given to removing this sentence from the rule.

Proposal #5:

The Committee supports the positions taken by the Appellate Practice Section of the Michigan State Bar in the December 22, 2014 letter of Nancy Vayda Dembinski.

Proposal #6:

The Committee supports the position taken by the Criminal Jurisprudence and Practice Committee regarding the proposed MCR 7.305(F).
