These entities have demonstrated full compliance with the Voluntary Pro Bono Standard adopted by the Representative Assembly in 1990. Full compliance is demonstrated through the provision of pro bono services rendered collectively through donations of reduced-fee or no-fee work, financial contributions to legal aid programs eligible to receive funding from the Access to Justice Fund, or a combination of the two. Most firms and corporations listed have a pro bono policy in place that includes encouragement of the provision of pro bono practice by all attorneys affiliated with these firms and corporations as well as documentation of such activities, which are reported to the State Bar of Michigan. Each firm listed has demonstrated that all attorneys employed by the firm collectively met the Standard in calendar year 2013.

On average, each attorney has contributed at least 30 hours of counsel or representation to low-income individuals and families or to organizations that provide legal services, or has donated at least $300 to a nonprofit program organized to deliver civil legal services to low-income individuals. The Voluntary Standard was recently amended to increase the annual financial contribution from $300 to $500 for those whose income allows a higher contribution.

Note: Circle of Excellence data is based on a calendar year to better align with the Access to Justice Fund. Applications for the 2015 Circle, celebrating pro bono participation for calendar year 2014, will be available in March 2015.
