Position:

SB 714, introduced by Sen. Birkholz and referred to the Committee on Judiciary, is the Senate version of HB 5100. The Council opposes this bill on the same grounds as our opposition to HB 5100. The bill changes the focus of the child custody act from the best interests of the child to fairness to a parent. The bill directs the court to ignore reality, to pretend that an absence of a parent for an extended period of time will not have any effect on where the child is most comfortable. The Council felt that children of military parents should not be treated as second class citizens and awarded as a prize for military service.
