

IN-PERSON PROGRAM

Everything You Wanted to Know About The New Revised Uniform Arbitration Act But Were Afraid to Ask

MAY 16, 2013 | 8:30 AM - 12:00 PM EDT | BLOOMFIELD, MI

Here's your opportunity to hear a comprehensive overview about the newly Revised Uniform Arbitration Act (RUAA) and how these changes have brought the arbitration statute into the 21st century.

The program speakers – who were directly involved in the drafting and enactment of the updated statute – will examine:

- how the new RUAA will impact the arbitration process
- key highlights and provisions of the revised statute
- enhancements to the arbitration process including:
 - predictability
 - lower costs
 - shorter proceedings and overtime
 - increased uniformity with arbitration legislation in other states

Ask the experts all of your questions! You'll leave the program with new insight and RUAA best practices for your arbitration cases.

Who Should Attend? Arbitrators, attorneys, and others who may be involved in the arbitration process.

Questions? Please contact Tracy Jusay at JusayT@adr.org or 212-484-3283.

To register
for this program,
go to www.aaau.org!

Speakers:

Martin C. Weisman, Esq.

Weisman, Young & Ruemenapp, P.C.
Bingham Farms, MI

Mary A. Bedikian, Esq.

Michigan State University Law School
Detroit, MI

