Let the State Bar of Michigan Work for You

Join the Law Student Section. Just $15 gets you a full year of:

- Free publications of interest to the Michigan legal profession, including a subscription to the Michigan Bar Journal (11 monthly issues and the April Directory issue), and optional subscriptions to the e-Journal (daily online publication that provides case summaries organized by areas of legal practice, legal news and updates, public policy, calendar of events, and classified and fields of practice listings); the Public Policy Update (weekly information about legislative and court developments); the SBM News (a free daily e-mail newsletter containing the top law-related news stories of the day); and the Disabilities Project Newsletter (quarterly electronic newsletter addressing issues faced by people with disabilities in the courthouse setting).
 - Access to free or low-cost membership in 38 other State Bar sections organized around practice areas and providing a vehicle for the exchange of ideas and information on new developments in the law, high quality educational seminars, valuable networking opportunities for learning, job opportunities and personal growth, and participation in the legislative process including formulation of the State Bar's legislative program.
 - Special invitations to participate in scholarship opportunities, writing competitions and financial awards, community service activities, and section and local bar association activities.
 - Optional involvement in planning, implementing, and participating in an IL oral advocacy competition.
 - Discounts on professional services and products including insurance, clothing, car rentals, identify theft programs, office supplies, travel, and more.
 - Pathways to your full participation in the legal profession, including job opportunities and leadership development skills.
- The mission of the Law Student Section of the State Bar of Michigan is to represent the students of Michigan's law schools and to act as a liaison to the State Bar sections, to increase student involvement in the State Bar of Michigan, to actively support other State Bar sections' philanthropic activities, and to further professional opportunities among law students.

Council Positions

Three students from each law school in Michigan and the University of Toledo are appointed to serve on the LSS governing council. This is a good first step for those who wish to take a leadership role in State Bar related activities.

Seminars

Each year the LSS sponsors programs featuring speakers of particular interest to law students and young lawyers. These seminars are held at various law schools and are usually free of charge.

Annual Meeting

As a LSS member, you will be able to attend the LSS council meetings, as well as seminars and section programs that are held during the State Bar's Annual Meeting in September.

Additional Section Memberships

When you join a State Bar section, you have the opportunity to interact with professionals who share similar interests. Sections sponsor seminars and present programs during the Annual Meeting, and many publish newsletters. Although student members may not vote or hold office, they are otherwise welcome to participate in section activities.
