FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Wayne Law to Host Traverse City Alumni Reception, Sept. 10

DETROIT (Aug. 12, 2009) – Wayne State University Law School is pleased to announce an alumni reception that will take place from 5:30 – 8 p.m. on Sept. 10, 2009, in Traverse City, Mich. Wayne Law alumni, colleagues and friends are invited to join Wayne Law Dean Robert M. Ackerman at The Park Place Hotel for hors d'oeuvres, cocktails and conversation.

“Wayne Law has a strong presence in Northern Michigan,” Dean Ackerman said. “Many of our alumni are employed by area firms, have established their own practices, work in academia or with the government, or are employed with area corporations. This alumni reception will provide a wonderful opportunity for our alumni and friends in Northern Michigan to reconnect with each other and with the Law School.”

Additionally, Wayne Law Distinguished Professor Robert Sedler will attend the event and provide a brief presentation on recent decisions made by the U.S. Supreme Court.

The Park Place Hotel is located at 300 East State Street in Traverse City, Mich. RSVP for the event by Sept. 4, 2009 to .specialevents.wayne.edu/traversecity or to Tammy Bynum, secretary of Development and Alumni Relations, at (313) 577-3113.

About Wayne Law

Wayne State University Law School has educated and served the Detroit metropolitan area since its inception as Detroit City Law School in 1927. Located at 471 West Palmer Street in Detroit's re-energized historic cultural center, the Law School remains committed to student success and features modern lecture and court facilities, multi-media and distance learning classrooms, a 250-seat auditorium, and the Arthur Neef Law Library, which houses one of the nation's 40 largest legal collections. Taught by an internationally recognized and expert faculty, Wayne Law students experience a high-quality legal education via a growing array of hands-on curricular offerings, client clinics, and access to well over 100 internships with local and non-profit entities each year. Its 11,000 living alumni, who work in every state of the nation and more than a dozen foreign countries, are experts in their disciplines and include leading members of the local, national and international legal communities.
