- Chairperson's Report: Mike McClory had several items on which to report:
- First, the dates for all future meetings will be in our monthly meeting packets.

- Second, Mike sent a letter to the Supreme Court with the Council's comments about the proposed Administrative Order regarding privacy issues (discussed in detail in last month's minutes). The Supreme Court has acknowledged receipt of our letter but we have had no further response.
- Third: Mike will be attending the State Bar Board of Commissioners meeting on Friday, October 18, to give a general report on our Section's activities.
- Fourth: our publishing contract with ICLE for our Section Journal is up for renewal. Mike and Nancy Little will discuss the contract renewal with ICLE to negotiate a new contract.
- Fifth: Robin Feriby, who could not attend today, told Mike that the Economics of Law survey, which is funded by the Community Foundation of Southeastern Michigan, is close to completion and will be sent out to Bar members electronically.
- Sixth: SCAO has recently done a judicial resource survey and, as a result, has recommended adjusting the number of judges in various counties. As a result, a bill has been introduced which will eliminate one probate judge in Wayne County and convert one probate judge in Oakland County to a general circuit court judge. Although the number of probate judges will be adjusted in certain other counties, in all cases other than Oakland County and Wayne County, the adjustment in number is upward rather than downward. Shaheen Imami passed out a copy of the proposed bill, which is enclosed. Mike reported that this bill would have a negative impact on the two busiest probate courts in the State of Michigan. Harold Schuitmaker stated that Judge Mack of the Wayne County Probate Court contacted him to express that the methods used when counting the courts' caseload was flawed. Various Council members noted that our aging population is growing, probate litigation is increasing, both of which will significantly impact the probate court caseloads. Lauren Underwood moved that the Council go on the record as opposing any attempt to reduce the number of probate judges in Wayne or Oakland County on the basis that such a reduction would be detrimental to the public, with a request to Becky Bechler to communicate our concerns to Rep. Van Regenmorter and an additional request to Mike McClory to write a letter to Rep. Van Regenmorter reiterating our concerns. Doug Chalgian supported the motion. Of the 17 Council members present, 16 voted in favor of this motion; Harold Schuitmaker abstained.

VI. Report of the Committee on Special Projects: The Committee on Special Projects devoted most of its time to the Michigan Trust Code committee. After lively discussion, the CSP recommended the Council adopt Sec. 411, 701, and 702 as recommended by the Trust Code Committee, and return Sec. 410 to the Trust Code Committee for further refinement. Chris Edgar moved, Harold Schuitmaker supported, and the motion was passed by vote of the membership. Chris also invited members to submit items for the CSP.
