ACCESS TO JUSTICE

Donor Acknowledgment

THE GOAL OF THE
ACCESS TO JUSTICE DEVELOPMENT CAMPAIGN IS TO RAISE FUNDS TO IMPROVE ACCESS TO JUSTICE
FOR LOW-INCOME PEOPLE WITH CIVIL LEGAL NEEDS IN MICHIGAN.

“IF THE MOTTO ‘AND JUSTICE FOR ALL’ BECOMES ‘AND JUSTICE FOR THOSE WHO CAN AFFORD IT’, WE THREATEN THE VERY UNDERPINNINGS OF OUR SOCIAL CONTRACT.”

CHIEF JUSTICE RONALD GEORGE
CALIFORNIA SUPREME COURT
Annual “State of Judiciary” Speech, 2001

During 2004, over $731,000 in new cash and pledges was raised for the Access to Justice Fund from 1,471 donors. These gifts and pledges from Michigan lawyers, foundations, corporations, and other supportive individuals demonstrate a solid partnership with the State Bar of Michigan towards its priority of ensuring the availability of legal aid services throughout the state. Because of this commitment the ATJ Fund has raised over $5 million, to date, in cash, pledges, and planned gifts.

The Michigan State Bar Foundation receives and manages ATJ donations. In 2004, it awarded the fourth round of ATJ Fund grants totaling $35,000. Since 2000, the ATJ Fund has awarded $165,000 for 19 innovative legal assistance projects throughout the state. The following 2004 awards illustrate how the ATJ Fund helps address unmet civil legal needs for all citizens regardless of their income level:

EMU/Washtenaw County Legal Resource Center (LRC) received $9,000 toward start-up costs of a community legal assistance center. The LRC will use attorney-supervised paralegal students from Eastern Michigan University to help pro se patrons with legal forms, provide legal information and make referrals to legal aid or local lawyer referral agencies, as well as to non-legal community support agencies.

Underground Railroad’s Civil Legal Assistance Program was awarded $9,000 to expand services through a collaborative effort of six domestic violence shelters in mid-Michigan that will assist low-income victims needing legal help with domestic violence and other family law problems.

Elder Law of Michigan was given a grant of $7,000 for the Michigan Caregiver's Legal Hotline to provide legal information, advice, brief services, and referrals over the telephone to low-income people who face legal issues related to caring for an elder. The grant will help toward matching dollars needed for federal funding.

University of Detroit Mercy School of Law received $3,000 for the Mobile Law Office Outreach Project, a donated motor home that travels to low-income neighborhoods, including non-English speaking communities, to offer legal advice, counsel, and intake for additional representation. The project uses attorney-supervised law students and pro bono lawyers to assist with legal education presentations and other services.

Lakeshore Legal Aid was awarded $5,000 for the Grandparents Raising Grandchildren Education Outreach Project to work with other agencies in updating legal education and pro se materials for grandparents raising grandchildren, and to develop training on this topic for human service personnel who work with seniors.

Free Legal Aid Clinic at Wayne State University received a grant of $2,000 toward software and additional monitors to go with donated computers to increase the number of work stations available for attorney-supervised law students assisting low-income clients with family law matters.

In addition, a combined total of $846,495.50 in donor-designated operation contributions and payments on pledges was distributed to 33 programs throughout the state. A total of 39 programs in Michigan are eligible to receive designated donations through the ATJ Fund.

The State Bar of Michigan is honored to recognize our Access to Justice Campaign leadership, the state's legal aid programs, and pro bono lawyers who work continuously to make Michigan's justice system accessible to all. Most importantly, the State Bar expresses appreciation to the ATJ Fund contributors who continue to secure justice for all citizens.
