Support in concept with recommendation to suggest revisions to bill sponsor*Explanation:

The Children's Law Section supports the concept of creating a path for reinstatement of parental rights. Overall, the Section supports SB 218 as drafted. However, the Section did have a few questions and concerns about the bill as drafted, particularly as it pertains to reinstating rights as it pertains to children who are younger than 14 and situations in which MCI is not a party to the case. The Section seeks to work with the bill sponsor to improve and refine the draft before providing unqualified support.
