

Administrative Law Section

On November 18, the Administrative Law Section is hosting a luncheon program at the Kellogg Center in East Lansing featuring the DNR and DEQ. Please join us. For more information, contact Michael J. Watza, chair-elect, c/o Kitch Drutchas Wagner Valitutti & Sherbrook, 1 Woodward 24th Floor, Detroit, MI 48226 or by e-mail at Mike.Watza@Kitch.Com.

Alternative Dispute Resolution Section

The ADR Section is always looking for articles on mediation, arbitration, and ADR in general for publication in The ADR Quarterly. You can submit articles to Kevin Hendrick, Toni Raheem, or Phil Schaedler at their addresses in the State Bar Directory.

Business Law Section

The section presented its annual Stephen H. Schulman Outstanding Business Lawyer Award to Justin Klimko at its annual meeting. The Small Business Forum will present a seminar this fall entitled "Green Energy and Minority and Women-Owned Businesses." The next council meeting will be held on December 5 at Bodman in Detroit. Watch for our monthly e-newsletter or visit our website at <http://www.michbar.org/business/> to learn more about the section and upcoming events.

Environmental Law Section

The Environmental Law Section held a program at the State Bar Annual Meeting on September 16. Wayne Beyea of MSU's Land Policy Institute discussed siting and zoning issues affecting wind energy facilities. Presenters from the Michigan Department of Environmental Quality, the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, and Niswander Environmental LLC discussed the future of wetlands regulation in Michigan. On November 5, the section will cosponsor a conference on air and waste issues at Lansing Community College.

Information Technology Law Section

The section elected the following new council members at its September annual meeting: William Cosnowski, Jr., Jeanne M. Dunk, Carla M. Perrota, and Claudia Rast. The section successfully hosted its 2nd Annual Information Technology Law Seminar on October 29 in cooperation with ICLE. The topic was "Core Legal Issues in a High Tech Business World." The next section meeting is scheduled for November 12 at Jaffe's Southfield office. All section members are invited to attend.

Law Practice Management and Legal Administrator Section

The election of officers and council members took place at the section's annual meeting, held September 16 in conjunction with the State Bar Annual Meeting in Dearborn. Three ICLE partnerships were awarded this year to annual meeting attendees. Awaiting the State Bar's approval process, the section is looking forward to the final merger of the Law Practice Management Section and the Legal Administrator Section. Our next meeting is Saturday, November 7, in Lansing. For details, visit <http://www.michbar.org/lawpractice/>.

Real Property Law Section

Join us December 3 for the next Homeward Bound seminar, "B2B: From Brownfields to Boomtown," 2 p.m.–5 p.m. at The Inn at St. John's, Plymouth. Lynn A. Gandhi of Honigman Miller Schwartz and Cohn LLP will moderate. Faculty: Peter Anastor of MEDC; Steven Black, deputy city manager of community development for Bay City; John Byl of Warner Norcross & Judd LLP; and Grant Trigger of Real Estate Interests Group.
