Inspiring CLE and Valuable Networking at Your Annual Meeting

Regain the joy of being a solo or small firm practitioner and mitigate the challenges at this year's Institute and State Bar Annual Meeting. Access to expert advice and networking with colleagues helps you come away recharged and retooled for success. Find and keep clients and save time and money with world-class technology and practice management tips. Have confidence in the advice you're giving by staying up-to-date on the latest trends in your practice areas. Plus, enjoy downtime when you venture out and explore the city of Grand Rapids.

Attend and Learn to:

- Build your client base and convert potential clients into paying clients
- Make a business plan that will help you effectively focus your time and energy
- Get the most bang for your buck out of blogging and social media
- Help clients understand long-term care options and how they can pay for them
- Develop new business opportunities by strengthening relationships with existing clients
- Pay less for the technology you need to run your practice
- Boost your productivity with Barron K. Henley's fast-paced tech tips
- Avoid stress by clearing the clutter and managing your time effectively
- Create a comprehensive set of go-to forms to increase profitability and prevent malpractice
- Interpret and apply the new uncapping rules for real property assessment
- Translate your strengths and interests into a successful niche practice

Featured Speakers at the Solo & Small Firm INSTITUTE

Rick Broida
CNET Blog Network
Commerce Township

Rick Broida writes about consumer and business technology for CNET, eHow, PC World, Wired, and other outlets. His popular CNET blog, The Cheapskate, attracts over one million views every month, and he recently published The Cheapskate Rules: 21 Easy Money-Saving Tech Secrets, which is available in print and e-book formats. Mr. Broida regularly talks about tech-related issues on WJZR's Internet Advisor show. His career as a technology writer recently hit the 25-year mark.

Robert E. Edick
Deputy Grievance Administrator,
Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission
Detroit

Robert E. Edick was a Wayne County assistant prosecuting lawyer for three years and then spent 17 years in private practice. He was appointed by the Michigan Supreme Court to serve as deputy administrator of the Michigan Attorney Grievance Commission in January 1996. He is a frequent lecturer at local law schools on the topic of professional responsibility.

Cordell M. Parvin
Cordell Parvin LLC
Dallas, TX

Cordell M. Parvin works with lawyers and law firms to help new lawyers find the right attitude, set appropriate goals, develop strategies for time management, and build networking skills. Previously, he practiced law for 34 years representing top U.S. transportation contractors. He is the author of three books and has published many articles on these subjects. You can follow Mr. Parvin on Twitter or learn from him through his LinkedIn Coaching Group, or through his daily blog, www.cordellblog.com.

Randall F. Dean
Randall Dean Consulting
& Training LLC
East Lansing

Randall F. Dean is a professional speaker, author, and expert on time and e-mail management, effective organization, and the related use of technology. For more than 20 years, he has led training and spoken at programs and presentations for corporate, academic, and association audiences. Obsessed with time management and personal productivity, Mr. Dean left a successful career as a graduate program admissions director, professional marketer, and manager to become a leading speaker and trainer.

Barron K. Henley
Affinity Consulting Group
Columbus, OH

Barron K. Henley is a lawyer, a “legal technologist” since 1990, and a founding member of Affinity Consulting Group (formerly Henley March & Unger Consulting, Inc.), a firm that handles all aspects of law practice automation including document and file management, server and personal computer issues, remote access, mobile lawyering, scanning and paper reduction strategies, electronic case filing, and many other topics. He is also a member of the ABA Law Practice Management Section.

Janet K. Welch
Executive Director, State Bar of Michigan
Lansing

Janet K. Welch is executive director of the State Bar of Michigan. She has had an extensive career in state government, beginning in the Michigan legislature where she served as a legislative analyst in the House and as the first director of the Senate's nonpartisan legislative analysis office. After graduating from the University of Michigan Law School, she was a law clerk for Michigan Supreme Court Justice Robert P. Griffin. She stayed at the Court for over a decade in a variety of positions, culminating in a position as Supreme Court counsel.
