

Here Today... and Tomorrow

Like all presidents, I am here today and gone tomorrow! However, that is not the case with the hard-working State Bar of Michigan staff.

Please take a look at the following pictures and know that the lawyers in Michigan are well served. These are the people who make available the e-Journal, Public Policy Resource Center, Michigan Bar Journal, and online member directory. They are working diligently to establish a Practice Management Resource Center. They are responsible for our Justice Initiatives, Access to Justice Fund, Ethics Hotline, UPL prosecution, Lawyers and Judges Assistance, section and committee support, and meeting planning. The finance department makes it all hum. Of course, the staff backs up the current president (that's me at the moment) and will continue to work attentively on behalf of our future presidents: Tom Cranmer, Kim Cahill, Ron Keefe, Ed Pappas, and Charles Toy (and all others who follow).

I thank each member of the staff for your effort during my year, and for what you will provide in the future—because you are here today and tomorrow. ♦
