Are you an attorney who would like to give back to the community? Would you be interested in mentoring students about civic education matters and the law?

Join us for an informative session about bringing civic education opportunities to students.

The session will highlight the Michigan Center for Civic Education's Mock Trial and We the People programs as well as the State Bar of Michigan Face of Justice program (modeled after the National Association of Women Judges "Color of Justice" program).
