Lending Policy

Who may use the SBM Lending Library?

Lending privileges for the SBM PMRC Lending Library are extended to members in good standing of the SBM who sign its Checkout and Lending Agreement Form.

What procedures should I follow to check out library resources?

Members may check out resources by completing a copy of the online Checkout and Lending Agreement Form and delivering or faxing the form to the SBM building at (517) 372-5921 Attention: Finance Department.

What resources are available for loan?

Resources in the Lending Library consist of publications and electronic media.

How many resources may I check out at one time?

Members may check out a maximum of two lending selections at one time.

How long may I borrow library resources?

Resources may be checked out of the Lending Library for a period of two weeks, with extensions being considered on a case-by-case basis. The two-week lending period begins to accrue on the date the item is sent. Items must be returned on the date which is two weeks from the date sent or if this date falls on a weekend or a national holiday, the next business day. Materials are to be returned to:

Practice Management Resource Center
State Bar of Michigan
306 Townsend Street
Lansing, MI 48933-2012

Must I verify that I agree to the terms and conditions in the Lending Policy?

A member's signature on the Checkout and Lending Agreement Form is an attestation that he/she agrees to and is bound by the terms and conditions as described in the SBM Lending Policy.

Is there a cost to borrow resources from the library?

The cost to borrow one resource is $10.00. There is no fee to simultaneously borrow a second resource. This charge will be automatically applied to the credit card information provided on the Checkout and Lending Agreement Form.

What methods of payment are available to me?

The accepted method of payment to cover lending fees is by credit card, including Visa and MasterCard.

How will I receive requested resources?

Once a completed Checkout and Lending Agreement Form has been received by the SBM, the requested resources will be shipped via UPS with one-day delivery.

If I request a resource and the resource is on loan to another member, will I be notified?

If a resource is requested that is currently on loan to another member, you will be contacted and advised of the current unavailability of the resource and the projected date the resource should be available.

Is there a fee associated with an item returned after the due date?

Overdue fines are $2.00 per item per day. Overdue notices are issued by e-mail or by U.S. mail. If an item is not returned within two weeks of the due date, the replacement cost of the overdue resource(s) is charged to the borrower's credit card, to include any applicable tax and shipping fees associated with replacing the resource. Anyone owing $2.00 or more in fines must pay in full before borrowing additional resources.

Is there a fee if I lose, damage, or fail to return borrowed resources?

Resources returned in a damaged state or resources lost or unreturned will be charged to the borrower's credit card at replacement rate, to include any applicable tax and shipping fees associated with replacing the resource.

Are there any copyright restrictions that apply to lending resources?

Due to licensing restrictions regarding usage, certain CDs provided with associated publications are not available for loan. If a publication that has an accompanying CD is shipped to you without the CD, licensing restrictions are being enforced. Copyright restrictions on resources sent for loan must be reviewed by the borrower on an individualized basis.
