

A Lawyer Helps
Pro Bono Opportunities Calendar
2020

March 3

Detroit

Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan Elder Law & Advocacy

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnls.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnls.org
(313) 937-8291

March 4

Detroit

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

March 11

Detroit

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

March 18

Detroit

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

March 24

Detroit

Detroit Legal Services Clinic

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association
645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information?

Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

March 25

Detroit

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information?

Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

March 26

Capuchini Soup Kitchen Legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.

March 30

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

April 6

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

April 7

Neighborhood Legal Services Michian Elder Law & Advocacy Center

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnl.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnl.org
(313) 937-8291

April 13

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

April 20

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu

April 23

Capuchin Soup Kitchen legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.

April 27

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

April 28

Detroit Legal Services Clinic

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association

645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information? Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

May 4

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

May 5

Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan Elder Law & Advocacy Center

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnl.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnl.org
(313) 937-8291

May 11

Federal Pro Se Legal Assistance Clinic

Help low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Where is the clinic? U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan
231 W. Lafayette Blvd.
Detroit, MI 48226

What time? 1-5 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to low-income litigants representing themselves in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

Is attorney training provided?

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <http://www.law.udmercy.edu/academics/experiential-learning/clinics.php>

Who can I contact for more information? Nicholas Schroeck
schroenj@udmercy.edu
(313) 596-9817

May 26

Detroit Legal Services Clinic

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association
645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information? Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

May 28

Capuchin Soup Kitchen Legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.

June 2

Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan Elder Law & Advocacy Center

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnl.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnl.org
(313) 937-8291

June 23

Detroit Legal Services Clinic

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association
645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information? Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

June 25

Capuchin Soup Kitchen Legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.

July 7

Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan Elder Law & Advocacy Center

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnls.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnls.org
(313) 937-8291

July 23

Capuchin Soup Kitchen Legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.

July 28

Detroit Legal Services

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association
645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information? Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

August 4

Neighborhood Legal Services Michigan Elder Law & Advocacy Center

Help low-income elderly residents of Wayne County.

Where is the clinic? Redford Community Center

What time? 2-4 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide legal services to low-income elderly clients.

Is attorney training provided? No

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer?

Who can I contact for more information? Erin Peets at epeets@wcnls.org
Erma Yarbrough Thomas at ethomas@wcnls.org
(313) 937-8291

August 25

Detroit Legal Services Clinic

Help pro se litigants seeking advice on variety of issues in all Wayne County Courts

Where is the clinic? Detroit Bar Association
645 Griswold, Suite 1356
Detroit, MI

What time? 12-3 p.m.

Who should volunteer? Michigan attorneys wanting to provide pro bono legal services to pro se litigants.

Is attorney training provided? Yes. Training, malpractice insurance, lunch, and free parking are provided to volunteer attorneys.

For more information and to sign-up/volunteer? <https://www.detroitlawyer.org/clinic/>

Who can I contact for more information? Mary Kovari
mkovari@detroitlawyer.org
(313) 861-6120, Ext. 210

August 27

Capuchin Soup Kitchen Legal Clinic

Help homeless and low-income individuals needing legal advice and assistance with a wide variety of legal issues, including outstanding tickets, child support arrearages, guardianship questions, employment matters, probate matters, landlord-tenant, and property tax issues.

Where is the clinic?

- 2nd and 4th Thursday of every month the legal clinic is held at the Capuchin Soup Kitchen, located at 1264 Meldrum St. in Detroit.

What time? 9:00-11:00 a.m.

Who should volunteer? Attorneys Interested in providing low-income clients legal advice and assistance with a variety of legal issues

Is attorney training provided? The clinic provides FAQs to new volunteers prior to their first clinic and also provides a comprehensive substantive pro bono reference manual for use during the clinic. New volunteers are also given the opportunity to work with a more experienced attorney for the first clinic. Contact Kim for more information.

More information and to sign up/volunteer: To volunteer and for more information, contact Kim Paulson kapaulsonesq@gmail.com

General information about the Capuchin Soup Kitchen and the services and programs it provides to Detroit's low-income and homeless population, click HERE.