

Legal First Responders: Equipping Attorneys to Empower Human Trafficking Survivors

October 17, 2019

8:00 a.m.–12:00 p.m.

Doors open at 7:45 a.m.

Western Michigan University Thomas M. Cooley Law School
Auburn Hills, Grand Rapids & Lansing Campuses

AGENDA

- 8:00                    Registration & Breakfast
Breakfast graciously provided by the Oakland County Bar Association
- 8:30–8:45            Welcome & Introductions
Jennifer Grieco, Immediate Past President, State Bar of Michigan
- Overview of Human Trafficking
Nate Knapper, CEO & Founder, The Joseph Project
- 8:45–10:15           Identifying & Advocating for Human Trafficking Victims
Elizabeth Campbell, Clinical Assistant Professor of Law, Human Trafficking Clinic, University of Michigan Law School
- Kelly Carter, Chair, Michigan Human Trafficking Commission; Assistant Attorney General, Michigan Department of Attorney General*
- 10:15–10:30        BREAK
- 10:30–11:15        Proactive Human Trafficking Investigations
Amy S. Allen, Forensic Interviewer, U.S. Department of Homeland Security
- 11:15–12:00        Trauma-Informed Practice
Ashley Lowe, CEO, Lakeshore Legal Aid
- 12:00                    Next Steps & Closing Remarks
Nate Knapper, CEO & Founder, The Joseph Project
- 12:00–12:30        Extended Q & A